PHOTOGRAPHER SPREADS WINGS

Beth Achenbach captures angelic expressions in “Feathers, Flight and Fancy”

Jersey City, NJ, November 27, 2009: The saying, “Angels among us” has come to life over the past few weeks. Maybe you caught a glimpse of some people with wings walking around Jersey City? Well, you weren’t seeing things. Photographer Beth Achenbach has been preparing for her upcoming show, “Feathers, Flight and Fancy” which is opening on Saturday, December 5th from 6-8pm at Made With Love Café, 530 Jersey Ave., Jersey City. “It seems only fitting that I get to merge my love for taking photos with my interest in angels and have it all come together at a place that’s so welcoming and has such warmth.” says Achenbach.

Beth has been carting around a pair of borrowed angel wings to meet up with those willing to put them on in the name of art. One of those models will also be performing on opening night. Singer Sarah Ernst will perform along with band mate Colin Comstock and percussionist Cat Lombardi who also modeled the wings for the show. Sarah Ernst currently lives in Jersey City and spends most of her time studying holistic healing therapies, eating good food, and collaborating with local musicians and artists. She loves music and believes it to be one of the most powerful tools for healing and peaceful communication between all living things. Her hope is to continue to create music and share in the building of many strong communities around her.

According to Ms. Achenbach the inspiration for this show comes from the people among us we already think are angels we say, “oh she/he is such an angel”. Those we know who always seem to go above and beyond what the average person does. They are the kind, thoughtful ones that seem to care for others more than themselves. That person who just gives up a subway seat for someone who needs it more or the one that always seems to show up exactly when you really need it. Those amazing people we have long suspected have been hiding their wings from us.

“Feathers, Flight and Fancy” will be on display at Made With Love Café December 4th through January 3rd.

You can catch a preview of “Feathers, Flight and Fancy” on Friday, December 4th as part of JC Fridays.

The opening party for “Feathers, Flight and Fancy” is Saturday, December 5th from 6-8pm.
